

IP'S HOT SPRINGS COMPETITION

Rhinegold Publishing is delighted to announce that the 20-year-old pianist Cowley Fu is the winner of our recent IP competition, in which readers were invited to upload their own recording of Peter Rudzik's Hot Springs (Jan/Feb 2015 issue, 'Sheet Music', page 43).

Cowley Fu

'Cowley Fu truly brought Hot Springs to life,' says Rudzik.

'His playing is very expressive and he's obviously having lots of fun. With his highly original articulation and pedalling, he has made the piece his own. I am amazed at the ease with which he plays such a virtuosic piece and must admit I like his interpretation better than my own, which from the point of view of the composer is ideal.'

Cowley Fu is currently studying at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music under Stephanie McCallum.

To hear Fu's performance of Hot Springs visit www.youtube.com/watch?v=EmVN_JFHR-c.

Many thanks to all our readers who submitted entries.